Honoring Janet's Loving & Creative Spirit

Janet was a kind and gentle person who made a big difference in the lives of everyone around her. She always cared about others, putting their happiness first and making them feel special. Janet loved trying new things and enjoyed every moment. She had a special passion for arts and crafts, especially making jewelry and paintings. Janet also dreamed of teaching children with disabilities how to express themselves through art, showing her deep care for others.

Janet will be remembered for being her true, authentic self—spunky, witty, and full of life. Her kindness and joy have left a lasting mark, inspiring us to live with open hearts, just as she did.
